1. Ordered to be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that the Yeomiah be registered in the name of Lutchmiammah, the widow of the last holder, on the condition of the service being kept up by her brother Shesha Charry.

2. This Yeomiah being a money payment for service in a Pagoda, is one of those allowances which should, in accordance with the wishes of the late Honorable Court and Government, be commuted, if possible, for land ; and the Board accordingly propose to request the Collector to ascertain and report whether it will be practicable, and on what terms, so to commute the Yeomiah in question.

3. In their letter of the 14th October 1861, No. 5,603, the Board gave a brief resumé of the history of the question of commuting into land allowances paid for native religious purposes, and begged the orders of Government as to the principles which should regulate such commuta-

tion ; but they have not been yet favored with an expression of the views of Government on the subject.
