Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th September 1862.

No. 109. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 23rd August 1862, No. 5,559:—

SIR,

1. I am directed by the Board of Revenue to bring to the notice of Government that in the Budget Estimates of charges for 1862-63 received from the Collectors the cost of the Village Establishments, where these are remunerated by cash payments from the Treasury, has been either altogether omitted to be provided, or the provision made has been inadequate; while in the Estimates of a few Districts, the cost of these Establishments being included with that of the Táluq or District Establishments without any intimation of the fact, was consequently struck out by this Office as being in excess of the sanctioned Táluq Establishments. The result is that the sanctioned Budget of 1862-63 contains no provision whatever for the charges of these Establishments, and on the suggestion of the Acting Accountant General, the Board have addressed a Circular to the Collectors requesting them to submit a supplemental Estimate for the charges in question. The Collectors were also directed to avail themselves of this opportunity to include also any other large and important items, which may have been omitted in their original Budget as finally sanctioned by the Government of India.

2. On the receipt of these Estimates, a general Estimate will be prepared by this Office, and forwarded to Government through the Acting Accountant General with a view to the sanction of the Government of India being obtained. As it will be some time before this sanction can be obtained, the Board request Government to authorize the disbursement of the salaries of the village servants under the head of Advance in all cases in which provision is either altogether wanting, or has been inadequately made in the sanctioned Budget. The advance will be adjusted after the receipt of the sanction of the Government of India for the supplemental Estimate.

No. 110. ORDER THEREON, 8th September 1862, No. 1,906.

Ordered accordingly.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
