Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 5th February 1862.

No. 86. Read the following letter from A. D. ROBERTSON, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government of Bombay (Revenue Department), to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, dated Bombay Castle, 21st January 1862, No. 258 :—

SIR,

1. I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 13, dated 6th instant, with accompaniments, and in reply to inform you that, on receipt from the Government of India direct of copy of their letter to the Madras Government, No. 2,519, dated 24th December 1861, the Chief Engineer of this Presidency was instructed to desire the Superintending Engineer of our Southern Provinces to make immediate arrangements for receiving charge of the Public Works Department of North Canara, and with this view Colonel Kennedy has been ordered to proceed at once to that District; and His Excellency in Council desires me to request that, pending the formal transfer of the District to the Bombay Presidency, the Government of Madras will be so good as to instruct the Collector to cash the Letters of Credit which the Chief Engineer of this Government may be grant to the Executive Engineer employed in North Canara.

2. I am further desired to inform you that instructions have been issued to the Accountant General of this Presidency to include in his Budget Estimates the receipts and charges of the Province of Canara, and that he awaits the information on the subject promised in the Telegram of the 6th instant.

3. In reply to the 3rd paragraph of your letter, desiring to be informed of the wishes of this Government as to the arrangements contemplated for the Civil administration of the Province, I am directed to state that these will depend upon the wishes of your Government with regard to the time when the Madras Officers can be removed from the District. On receiving information on this point, His Excellency in Council will make every arrangement to meet the convenience of the Madras Government.

Ordered that the following letter be despatched :—

No. 88. From J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, to the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated 5th February 1862, No. 206.

SIR,

1. I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 21st January 1862, No. 258, and to state in reply to paragraph 3, that the services of the Officers of this Government now in North Canara are not immediately required elsewhere.

5. The Accountant General of this Presidency has been desired to instruct the Collector of North Canara to the effect suggested in paragraph 1 of your letter under reply.

3. As to the Budget Estimate for the District referred to in paragraph 2 of the same letter, the Accountant General has represented* that it will not be ready in time to be incorporated in the Bombay Budget. The Government have in consequence approved of that Officer's suggestion to transmit the document separately direct to the Government of India; but have desired him to forward copies as soon as possible for the information of your Government. He has also been desired to communicate with the Accountant General of your Presidency on the subject.
