SIR,

1. With reference to paragraph 2 of the Order of Government No. 1,823, dated 27th ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that the pay of the Dresser required for the Head Assistant Collector's establishment at Tinnevelly may be met from the 10 per cent. margin allowed upon the Director General's Estimate of the Medical Department for Revenue Medical Establishments, vide paragraph 19 of the Government Order No. 128, dated 28th January 1862.

2. The total amount sanctioned on account of Revenue Medical Establishments is Rupees 72,590, which is in excess of the provision made by the Director General by Rupees 7,953. If, from this amount is deducted Rupees 1,500 on account of the moiety pay of Dr. Cream, and the salary of Dr. Reid, in Medical charge of the Government establishment at Tuticorin, it will still leave a saving of Rupees 6,453 to be appropriated for Medical contingencies.
