No. 222. ORDER THEREON, 18th October 1862, No. 2,231.

1. Ordered to be recorded.

2. The chief cases that call for remark are No. 2 of the Malabar Return for the second quarter, and Nos. 1 and 2 in the Ganjam Return for the first quarter. In all these cases the individuals dismissed were very old servants. In the first the only offence recorded is absence without leave, while nothing is laid to the charge of the servants dismissed in Ganjam except that they were found unfit to discharge their duties. The Government desire further explanation of these cases, and they wish to be informed whether the dismissal was in any case qualified by a recommendation for pension or gratuity.

3. The Board will also state whether the Shroff who embezzled Rupees 125 in Cuddapah received any other punishment beside dismissal.
