No. 135. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th November 1861, No. 6,131 :—

Read the following from the Collector of Cuddapah.

Tabular Statement of Yaumia arrears, dated 16th July 1861, and reviewed in Board's Proceedings 29th idem.

Letter dated 19th October 1861, No. 121.

With reference to note to Proceedings Board of Revenue of 29th July 1861, No. 4,058, I have the honor to inform the Board that all the Pensioners entered in the list to whom arrears are due, have appeared in person, either before my Sub-Collector, or myself, and satisfactorily proved their identity, and that in the 3rd, 5th, 6th, and 7th Cases, the parties agreed to the commutation of their pensions under the Rules.

2. The Statement of Yaumia arrears contains 10 individual cases, the periods during which the allowances remained undrawn varying from two to ten years as particularized in the margin. The reasons assigned for the delays are ill health, absence from station, and other similar causes, which can hardly be considered sufficient in the case of the longer periods. However, as the Collector reports that all the Pensioners referred to in the Statement have appeared either before him, or the Sub-Collector, and have satisfactorily established their indentity, the Board recommend that payment of the arrears severally due to them, amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 2,040-9-1 be sanctioned together with the continuance of their allowances.

3. The Collector will, however, submit at an early date, an application for the commutation of the allowances below 20 Rupees, should the recommendations now made to Government be approved.

No. 136. ORDER THEREON, 7th February 1862, No. 230.

The Government observe that Yaumias undrawn for four years lapse as a matter of course. In six of the cases submitted by the Board the allowances have been undrawn for periods of seven and ten years. The Government decline to allow these to be continued or commuted, In the other cases, Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 8 the Yaumias may be continued.

He has now made his appearance, and claims the arrears, as well as the continuance of the Yeomiah. It is, therefore, recommended that the arrears due to him amounting to Rupees 422-13-11, and the continuance of the Yeomiah, may be sanctioned.

The arrears of pensions in these cases have accumulated during such extended periods that the Board do not feel themselves warranted in requesting sanction for their payment without receiving express assurance from the Collector, that he has personally satisfied himself of the identity of the parties claiming payment. In the 3rd, 5th, 6th and 7th cases it must be a condition of the payment that the parties consent to the commutation of the Pensions under the Rules.
