Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 13th November 1862.

No. 145. Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Head Assistant Collector of North Arcot, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ranepett, 1st November 1862:—

SIR,

1. I was appointed to act as Sub-Collector of North Arcot in May last, and took charge on the 13th idem at 2 P.M., the Civil Paymaster refused to pass my deputation allowance from that date until the 14th of June, on the grounds that I was acting in my own District. As I had charge of the Sub-Division in 1861, during the absence of Mr. Blair on leave, I thought I was entitled to receive deputation allowance under Proceedings Government of India, Financial Department, dated 3rd June 1859, No. 4,867; I have however since been informed that as I was not gazetted to the appointment in 1861, but only acted under the orders of the Collector, my claim cannot be permitted without special sanction.

2. Under these circumstances I beg to submit for the favorable consideration of Government my application, that the month in question in 1861 may be permitted to count as if I had been gazetted to act during that period, so as to entitle me to draw deputation allowance from the 14th of May 1862.

3. I would respectfully urge in support of my request, that I was put to the expense of two moves to Vellore in the short space of six months; that should my present request not be granted, I shall have done the work of the Sub-Division for five months for only three months allowances; that from the 14th of May to the 14th of June 1862, the period for which the Civil Paymaster refuses to pass my deputation allowance, I was not only Acting Sub-Collector, but continued to do the whole Head Assistant's work also; and lastly, that the Madras Government in their Proceedings dated May 21st, 1862, No. 1,124, granted a similar application to this, in favor of Mr. Williams. Enclosing a Memorandum showing the dates on which I received and gave over charge of the Sub-Collector's Office in 1861 and 1862.

No. 146. ORDER THEREON, 13th November 1862, No. 2,402.

Referred to the Civil Paymaster for report.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
