Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st November 1862.

No. 257. Read the following Endorsement of the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, in the Home Department, dated the 31st October 1862, No. 6,148 :—

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, under date the 14th October 1862, No. 5,440.

Extract from a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated the 23rd August 1862, No. 131.

Letter dated 12th May 1862, No. 66.

Paragraph 5. The circumstances here represented seem to justify the grant of some increase of salary to Mr. Atkinson, Deputy Collector of Sea Customs at Madras. I am not prepared to adopt the recommendation of your Government to its full extent; but am of opinion that his pay may properly be raised from Rupees 600 to 700 per mensem, to commence from the date of the receipt of this Despatch.

ORDER.

Endorsement, Home Department, No. 2,159, dated. 25th April 1862, with enclosures.
Financial Order No. 3,458, dated 12th May 1862

Ordered, with advertence to the documents cited in the margin, that a copy of the above paragraph be sent to the Home Department for information and for communication to the Government of Madras.

Ordered also, that a transcript of the same paragraph be forwarded to the Officiating Auditor General of India, and to the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General and the Civil Paymaster, Madras, respectively, for information and guidance, with an intimation that the increase to Mr. Atkinson's salary will take effect from the 25th ultimo, the date of the receipt in this Department of the Secretary of State's Despatch.
