Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th December 1862.

No. 98. Read the following letter from Reverend F. G. LUGARD, Secretary Colonial and Continental Church Society, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 1st December 1862:—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to bring to your notice that His Excellency the Governor in Council on the 28th January 1861, was pleased to order that the funds of the Colonial and Continental Church Society, being raised for purely religious and benevolent purposes, should be exempted from Income Tax, and that deductions which had already been made on account of the Tax should be refunded to the Society.

2. Since that time the Additional Clergy Society has been incorporated with the above Society and certain vested funds, together with certain liabilities, have been transferred to it. I find that the securities which did belong to the Additional Clergy Society and are now held by the Colonial and Continental Church Society, have been subjected to the deduction of Income Tax from the time of their transfer, and I am informed by the Treasurers, Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., that an Order of Government is necessary in order to our obtaining a refund of what has been deducted and an exemption for the future.

3. I have the honor to request that you will lay this subject before his Excellency the Governor in Council with a view to our obtaining this indulgence.

4. I may be allowed to add that all the funds of the Society do eventually pay Income Tax, as each Agent has to pay on account of his own salary, a charge which is met by the Committee.

5. The following are the Securities on account of which exemption is desired:—
