Remarks by His Excellency the President—

The Pension has not lapsed and as it was not in fact a Pension but the purchase money of certain Emoluments, the man must be paid without condition.—

Do by the Honorable E. Maltby

This is the 4th year and it is an act of grace continuing the pension after such default. I would therefore do as the Board propose—pay it up and get rid of it.—

Ex. Pensions—Capture of Pulicat, and the Dutch Settlements in the Straits of Malacca—Commutation of Pensions granted to Officers of the Civil Service of the Hon. the East India Company.

Remarks by the Honorable
S" Bycroft.—

I do not think that it has lapsed, as the fourth year has not expired but the Govt are not bound to pay the arrears, unless on such terms as they may please to impose— I would therefore make the payment contingent on the commutation being agreed to—
