Explanatory Memo.

Settlement

1 In Salem, the out door work is drawing to a close, and consequently the out-turn is small.

2. In Nellore, the progress of Demarcation was impeded by the Jamabundy Sittings and rain. A large amount of work however, is in progress which will be brought to account in the next returns.

3. In the Kistna Party, the Standard has been exceeded in Demarcation, but not attained in Classification. There is however, a large extent of classification in progress which will be duly returned for February.

4. In Kurnool the Villages completed are surrounded by Hills and Jungles, and required much labor in clearing the boundary lines. The prevalence of Sickness has likewise diminished the work in this Month. There are however, 300 Square Miles in progress, a portion of which will be brought to account in the Report for February.

A.C.

5. A Supplemental Return will be submitted for the Wynaad as soon as the necessary information is received from the Officiating Deputy Director, who has been called upon to furnish the same without further delay.

Survey

6. A portion of the Survey field Establishments in Salem was employed in testing, and there was also loss of time in travelling and from the absence of Villagers. Only $\frac{2}{3}$ of the full number of Amins were employed, and the amount of work turned out is fair in proportion.

7. In the Coimbatore District the field Establishments were employed chiefly in testing and in Office.

8 A portion of the out-door Establishments in the Madura District was likewise employed in the Office and as only $\frac{2}{3}$ of the sanctioned number of Amins were employed in the field work, the out-turn on the whole is good.

9. In Nellore the field Establishments were mostly occupied in Office during the recess and a portion was also employed in testing work: the out-turn is consequently small.

10 The Wynaad party is mostly occupied in measuring the Coffee Estates. The small amount turned out by the portion working in Coimbatore is attributed to the absence of the Villagers.
