Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th February 1862.

No. 394. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated 3rd February 1862, No. 157 :—

SIR,

1. In reply to the Proceedings of Government, No. 145, dated 30th January last, I have the honor to report as follows.

2. Under G. O. of 5th October 1860, No. 1,804, Mr. Stuart draws a special allowance of Rupees 600 per mensem, his acting allowance is not regulated in accordance with the rules of the service, and, the full number of Deputy Collectors being complete, there are no available funds in the Revenue Department to meet his salary, which is passed in full against the Settlement Department.

	RS.
Moiety of salary as Probationary Assistant Director Revenue Settlement, debited to Settlement Department	100
Do. as Acting Deputy Collector, 3rd class, debited to Revenue Department	175

3. Mr. Pritchard's case differs from that of Mr. Stuart, inasmuch as his allowances were passed strictly according to the rules, chargeable partly to the Settlement and partly to the Revenue Department as shown in the margin.

No. 395. ORDER THEREON, 19th February 1862, No. 360.

Ordered to be communicated to the Director of Revenue Settlement for his information, with reference to his letter dated 4th January 1862, No. 6/2. The case of Mr. Stuart is an exceptional one as stated by the Civil Paymaster. The moiety of the pay of a Probationary Assistant which Mr. Pritchard drew must continue to be charged to the Settlement Department according to the rules.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
