Official Memorandum.

The undersigned requests that the Secretary to Government Revenue Department, will return to this Office the original Budget Estimates both of receipts and Charges for 1862/63, received from the several Collectors &c. - The sums provided for by the local Officers in the first instance having been in some cases altered by the Board and revised by Government, it is found necessary to refer frequently to the original Budgets, to ascertain what amount was finally admitted under each head, and what funds are available for expenditure. -
