1. I have the honor by direction of the Commissioners of Income Tax for the Town of Madras, to solicit that the Government will be pleased to exempt from the payment of Income Tax, the Government Securities marginally noted, on the ground that the interest accruing thereon is devoted to public, religious, and charitable purposes.

2. The claim to exemption is made by one Sabapathy Iyer, Agent of Kansivasee Ramalinga Tumberam of Therupanunthal in the Tanjore District, who has proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the annual interest derived from the Securities, Rupees 3,960, is devoted to the feeding of travellers, and to the teaching of the Vedas to Brahmin boys at 12 Chatrams situated at Ramaswaram in the Madura District.

3. The Commissioners are therefore of opinion, that the Government Bonds in question should be exempted from the payment of Income Tax duty, under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860.

No. 513. ORDER THEREON, 26th February 1862, No. 417.

Under Section 133, Act XXXII of 1860, the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt, from the duties chargeable under that Act, the Government Securities named in the foregoing letter as long as the interest thereon shall be devoted to the public, religious, and charitable purposes described.
