Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th March 1862.

No. 70. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th February 1862, No. 1,129 :—

Read the following letter from W. M. CADELL, Esq., Collector of Tanjore, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Chepauk, dated Vellum, 31st January 1862, No. 39.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to submit the following report on Board's Petition No. 2,932 of 1861.

2. Petitioner, one Venkataramana Chari, applies for permission to institute a Suit in the Civil Court for the recovery of certain Shrôtrium land situated in the village of Thirupavanamangalam, Sheali Tâluq.

3. From an examination of the records in this office, it appears that the aforesaid village was granted about 100 years ago by Tulaja Maharaja of Tanjore, to a body of sixteen Brahmins on Shrôtrium tenure under a Sicca Sanad, which is entered in No. 12 of the Register made in 1810, but no connection can be traced between the present litigants and any of the original grantees.

4. The land now in dispute, of the extent and value marginally noted, was about 60 years ago given to the Petitioner by Anumantha Chari the Petitioner's father-in-law; but how the latter came to the possession thereof is not clear.

5. In the Pymaish account of Fasli 1236, and in the Anubogam Register of 1258, the land in question is entered in the name of the Petitioner.

6. The Petitioner states that he made a conditional sale of the said land to one Lekshami-bayi Ammal; that the latter sold the same to one Viyasakishna Chari who, in turn, disposed of the same to the Defendant Kishna Chari; and that the Defendant, in contravention of the terms stipulated in the said conditional deed of sale, refuses to take the money and make over the land to him, the Petitioner.

7. The Defendant, on the other hand, alleges that he purchased the land in dispute outright from the said Viyasakishna Chari, and objects to part with its possession.

8. Under these circumstances, I am of opinion that the permission sued for may be granted.

Ordered to be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that Petitioner be granted the permission to sue for his alleged rights in the established Courts which he solicits.
