No 237

From, E. J. Trevor Esquire, Collector of Customs,
Calcutta.
To, The Acting Govt, Fort St. George, Madras.
Dated 15th May 1862.

Sir,

An Officer of my Department had a case to your address handed to him by the Mail Master of the S.S. "Candia" which I have the honor of forwarding to you per S.S. "Kursis", 2nd. The case has evidently been brought on here by mistake and I am informed that it was sent on board at Calcutta without any official notice accompanying.
The case is in charge of the Mail Master.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your most Obedt. Servant,

E. J. Trevor
Collector of Customs.
