Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 10th March 1862.

No. 135. Read again letter from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, dated 1st and recorded in Miscellaneous Proceedings 15th February 1862, No. 23.

Read also the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 21st February 1862, No. 221:—

SIR,

1. In reply to the Proceedings of Government, No. 23, dated 15th instant, I have the honor to state that Major Crewe, Deputy Superintendent Revenue Survey, in charge of No. 2 party employed in the Godavery District, availed himself of the three months' privilege leave granted him in Orders dated 1st October 1861, on the 4th November last, and was required by the rules to return to duty on the 4th instant.

2. Meanwhile Major Priestley, Superintendent Revenue Survey, in his Memorandum dated 24th January 1862 (copy furnished to this Office) appointed Major Crewe to the charge of the Central Office during his absence on duty from the 25th January, and cancelled the remaining portion of Major Crewe's privilege leave. As this Office could not recognise this arrangement without the sanction of Government, I informed Major Priestley accordingly with a view to his obtaining the necessary sanction. If the Government confirm the arrangement made by Major Priestley, there will be no objection to Major Crewe being considered on duty from the 25th January 1862, and the unexpired portion of his privilege leave being cancelled. The effect of this, however, will be that Major Crewe will become entitled under the rules to travelling allowance from Madras to his head quarters (Rajahmundry) on rejoining his appointment (which he proceeded to do by the ship "Trafalgar" on the 10th instant) unless Government are pleased to order otherwise.

No. 136. ORDER THEREON, 10th March 1862, No. 519.

1. The Government have no objection to confirm the arrangement effected by Major Priestley, and Major Crewe's privilege leave will be cancelled from the 25th January.

2. Travelling allowance cannot however be passed to Major Crewe without explanation from Major Priestley of the necessity of the arrangement reported.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
