No. 290. Read the following letter from F. WALTHER, Esq., Secretary to the Income Tax Commission, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 4th March 1862, No. 5 :—

1. I am directed by the Commissioners of Income Tax for the Town of Madras, to solicit that the Government will be pleased to exempt from Income Tax the property described in the margin, on the ground that the annual income of Rupees 540 derived therefrom, is devoted to Hindu religious and charitable public purposes.

2. The claim is made by one Kanaya Laul, the Manager of the property, who has appeared before the Commissioners and proved to their satisfaction that the yearly profit of Rupees 540, realized from the sale of the produce of the Coconut gardens attached to the Choultries, is devoted to the lighting and cleaning of the said Choultries, to the Hanoomantharoya Pagoda and to the Triplicane Pagoda. Under these circumstances the Commissioners consider it is entitled to exemption under the provisions of Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860, from the payment of Income Tax.

No. 291. ORDER THEREON, 17th March 1862, No. 596.

Under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860, the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt from Income Tax the property mentioned in this letter as being devoted to religious and charitable public purposes.

Deputy Secretary to Government.
