best of my professional judgment after careful personal examination of his case I consider the state of health of Mr. Hewill ~~Esq.~~ to be such

Memo

It is with much regret that under medical advice I am necessitated to seek a change to England on the score of health, and to temporarily leave the important duties entrusted to me.

The successful working of the large machinery of the Department will depend much upon the person who may be selected to act for me during my absence, and I venture to suggest that the duties could not be confided to better hands than Mr. Master, who carried on the work for the 3 months I was away at the Hills.

He is of 16 years standing in the service, has been in the Department from the commencement, and is thoroughly conversant with the work, and I have the greatest confidence in his ability and judgment. A Comparative stranger to the Department could not with any degree of satisfaction carry on the work for a considerable time until he became well acquainted with the routine of the Settlement duties and the correspondence which has passed on the several important questions connected with the Department as well as the requirements of the Survey branch, and it would further require experience on the ground before he could act or recommend with confidence.

There will be no difficulty in arranging for the introduction of the Settlement in the Godavery District now in in Mr. Master's hands, as he would still have the general direction of it, and in temporarily filling his place of Sub Collector, which he holds jointly with the post of a Deputy Director, I would venture to suggest that an experienced and judicious officer should be selected, so that the people may retain their confidence in the measures now being carried out.
