Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th January 1862.

No. 160. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Chepauk, 7th January 1862, No. 58 :—

SIR,

In Cons 2nd October 1861, No. 6,251.

1. In reply to the Government Proceedings, dated 1st October 1861, No. 1,897, Revenue Department, I am directed by the Board to state, that no extra machinery will be required for the assessment of the Trades duty in addition to the existing Establishment, except in the case of Zamíndárís, and in those few localities in which Village Establishment do not exist, the charge for which will certainly be far more than covered by the 3 per cent. Commission allowed by the Act.

2. The Estimate of charges for the present year has been already submitted to Government in the Board's letter, dated 13th November 1861, No. 6,253.

3. The Board do not consider that any special rules requiring the sanction of the Governor General in Council are necessary in connection with the tax.

Ordered that the following letter be despatched :—

No. 161. From J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, to the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 20th January 1862, No. 80 :—

SIR,

1. With reference to your letter, dated 9th September 1861, No. 11,128, I am directed to state for the information of the Government of India, that no extra machinery will be required for the assessment of the Trades duty except in Zamíndárís and in a few places where no Village Establishment exists. The charge for special agency in these exceptional cases will be more than covered by the 3 per cent. Commission allowable under Section 9 of Act XVIII of 1861.

2. The estimate of charges for 1861-62, was forwarded with my letter of 23rd November 1861, No. 2,209.

3. The Government are of opinion that no special rules requiring the sanction of the Government of India are necessary in connection with this tax.
