Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th April 1862.

No. 329. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st March 1862, No. 2,078:—

Read the following letter from E. B. THOMAS, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Ootacamund, 18th March 1862, No. 61.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to reply to the Board's Order of the 8th February, No. 908, calling for my remarks as to the future use of the Bhowany Travellers' Bungalow.

2. Bhowany, as the Board are aware, is the Head Quarters of the Head Assistant Collector. Mr. Irvine has expressed a hope, that on the opening of the Railway to Coimbatore, the Bhowany Bungalow should be given up to him for the use of his Office. If this course be adopted, the Head Assistant would not continue to draw extra tent allowance when at Bhowany, and the saving to Government thus effected, would compensate for the present outlay in repairing the District Munsif's Court. I recommend the adoption of Mr. Irvine's suggestion. Bhowany is a hot, feverish station with no proper encamping ground. The Travellers' Bungalow is situated in a central and healthy position, and its transfer to the Head Assistant Collector, when no longer required by travellers, would be a boon to that Officer, and would result in an eventual saving to Government; it will also be available to other Departments when on circuit.

3. On the extension of the Railway to Coimbatore, the Bungalow at Perindoray will no longer be required by travellers. I would suggest the transfer of the District Munsif's Court (at present held at Bhowany) to that building, as being more central, and convenient to suitors and the public generally, and by which arrangement also the necessity of repairing the present Court House would be obviated.

In Cons. 7th February 1862, No. 693.

1. Ordered to be submitted to Government, with reference to their Order, dated 3rd February 1862, No. 165, Judicial Department, and with the Board's recommendation that on the opening of the Madras Railway to Coimbatore, the public Bungalow at Bhowany be assigned for the Head Assistant's Kacheri, as it will no longer be required by travellers.

2. It is not in the Board's province to pass any opinion on the proposed transfer of the District Munsif's Court from Bhowany to Perindoray, which latter station is undoubtedly more central for his charge.

No. 330. ORDER THEREON, 24th April 1862, No. 884.

1. In Government Order dated 28th October 1861, No. 1,315, Judicial Department, the Government sanctioned an outlay of Rupees 600 for enlarging and improving the Court House of the District Munsif of Bhowany.

2. The Sudder Court in January last suggested that the public Bungalow at that place might on the extension of the Railway to Coimbatore be converted into a Court House for the Munsif, and the question was referred for the report of the Board of Revenue.

3. From the report of the Collector (which the Board submit with an expression of their concurrence) it appears that the Head Assistant Collector who is stationed at Bhowany has no Office, and consequently draws extra tentage (Rupees 2-10 per diem) when resident at that place as well as when travelling in his Taluqs.

4. The Collector recommends that the Bungalow be converted into an Office for the Head Assistant whereby Government will save Rupees 632 annually, assuming, as is probable, that the Head Assistant is resident at his Head Quarters for eight months in each year, devoting the other four to tours in his Táluqs.

5. As this would evidently be the most advantageous arrangement, the Government approve and sanction it.

6. The Collector's recommendation that the District Munsif be stationed at Perindoray, which is more central than Bhowany and where another public Bungalow will soon be available, will be considered in the Judicial Department.
