

than particular Institutions - but Section VIII. requires the members to be "appointed from among persons
professing the religion for the purposes of which the Mosque, Temple or other religious establishment was founded or in some manner maintained." Taking the two sections together there seems no reason to doubt that Govt. can nominate Committees of
particular Institutions;
and where the Interes-
tes are important
this will probably be the best course.
Taking however to the number of religious institutions.

without election, it

seems desirable either that Gov. officers holding influential situ-ations should not be appointed unless their appointment is unmistakably and spontaneously decided by the community or that they should ~~only~~ be appointed to ~~committees~~ consisting of more than 3 members - so that the influence which they may possess
from their official position may not be predominant - Of course, ^{where} the Committee are elected, these considerations

