JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from P. GRANT, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 15th June 1863, No. 48.

1. In their Order of 4th November 1862, No. 1,807, Judicial Department, Government authorized the removal of the Taluq Cutcherry at Caroor to a Government Chuttrum there, the present Taluq Cutcherry being in future used as a Chuttrum open to all classes, and the alterations and additions to the former building sanctioned in a subsequent order are now being executed. On their completion the Tahsildar's Cutcherry will be removed to it.

2. The Civil Judge of Coimbatore has now forwarded to me a proposition from the District Moonsiff of Caroor, to the effect that the building at present occupied by the Tahsildar be converted into a Court House and the present Court House, into a Chuttrum, for the reasons that the present Cutcherry is insufficient to afford accommodation for the Vakeels, suitors and parties.

3. The Sub-Collector to whom the subject was referred, recommends the adoption of the Moonsiff's suggestion, and states that by this arrangement the convenience of the [illegible] will be best consulted, and that the extra expense to Government will be very trifling. I therefore request the sanction of Government for the proposed exchange.

4. The Tahsildar estimates the cost of the necessary changes to the Moonsiff's Court in converting it into a Choultry, at Rupees 100, and that of converting the Cutcherry into a Court House, including the raised seat and rails at Rupees 70.

5. Copies of letters from the Civil Judge and Sub-Collector as noted in the margin, as well as the rough plan of the present Court House, are forwarded for the information of Government.

From the Civil Judge, dated 1st May [illegible], with translation of the District Moonsiff's Urzee.
From the Sub-Collector, 27th May [illegible].

ORDER THEREON, 27th June 1863, No. 1,007.

The Governor in Council authorizes the removal of the District Moonsiff's Court at Caroor to the present Taluq Cutcherry when it has been vacated by the Tahsildar, and the conversion of the present Court House into a Chuttrum for the use of travellers.

2. Orders will be passed in the Public Works Department for making the necessary alterations and repairs to the two buildings successively.
