Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd July 1863.

No. 58. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th June 1863:—
Read the following letter from E. B. FOORD, Esq., Acting Collector of Kistna District, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Masulipatam, 26th June 1863, No. 113.

SIR,

1. Adverting to paragraph 11 of the Order of Government, dated 23rd April last, No. 703 received with the Board's Proceedings of the 6th instant, No. 2,712, I have the honor to report:

	Peshcush
1 Chittigudar—Gudimella Varadachari and two others	510
2 Rayasaram—Do. Varadachari	979
3. Gaispoliem.—Do. Tattuchari	429
4. Penagudurlunka, do. Paramallachari	319
5. Duvuripally Cippala Settya Nalla as Trustee of the Pagoda of Ranga Naikas- wamy	511 that so far back as the year 1816-17, Rajah B. Nagunnah Naidoo alienated five villages appertaining to Goodoor Purganah, to the individuals noted in the margin. Pending the preparation of the subdivision accounts, as applied for by the Zemindar, in order to assess them with a due proportion of the permanent Jumma, under Section IX, Regulation XXV of 1802, the Parganah in question had fallen so largely in arrears that the Zemindar offered to cede it to Government; but his offer was rejected, and it was sold by public auction, and purchased on account of Government.

From Commissioner to Government, 27th October 1851.
From Govt. to Commissioner, 26th Dec. 1851.

2. Soon after the purchase, the party to whom the Zemindar had made over the village of Penagudurlunka, brought a Suit against the Collector and the Zemindar, in the Civil Court of Masulipatam, for the recovery of the village alienated to him. The Government, however, did not authorize the defence of the Suit, but ordered the restoration of the village to the party, on the grounds set forth in Extract Minutes Consultation dated 23rd August 1853, No. 963.

3. The above precedent naturally induced the other four parties to claim their right to the villages transferred to them, on the same principle. The ground on which these claims were advanced being identical with that on which the Commissioner, Northern Circars, 22nd Nov. 1854, No. 819.

Government ordered the restoration of Penagudurlunka, the said four villages were ordered to be transferred to the claimants.

4. About six months ago, the Zemindar and the present proprietor of Penagudurlunka both sent Arzees to me, stating that the latter sold his village to the former for Rupees 2,500, and requesting that it might be registered in the name of the Zemindar. The request was not then complied with, as the Peshcush was in arrears; but as the balance has since been discharged, the village can now be registered in his name.

5. With regard to the remaining four villages the Government have, as above stated, relinquished their claim to them, a fact which the Zemindar must be well aware of; or he would not have purchased Penagudurlunka. Under these circumstances, his application to have them included in the Goodoor Purganah cannot of course be complied with.

1. Ordered to be submitted to Government, with reference to their Proceedings quoted by the Acting Collector.

2. A reference to the former correspondence on the subject of the alienations in question, shows that the Zemindar's request for their inclusion with the remainder of the Estate ordered to be restored, is altogether inadmissible. Should he acquire them from the present holders, the Peshcush now paid separately for each of these five villages will have to be added to that fixed by Government, on the remnant of the original Estate which is in course of restoration to the Zemindar.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd July 1863, No. 1,179.

1. The Government having carefully considered the circumstances connected with the transfer of five villages of the Goodoor Parganah to Varada Charlu and others, agree with the Collector and the Board in their opinion that the request of the Zemindar to have the villages included in his Estate is inadmissible—the Government no longer having any power over them.
2. The Peshcush of the Gollapoliem village, as given in the margin of paragraph 1 of the Collector's letter, appears to be incorrect, it ought to be 210 Rupees instead of 120 Rupees.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.

No. 1179.

The Government having carefully considered the circumstances connected with the transfer of five villages of the Goodoor Parganah to Varada Charlu and others agree with the Collector and the Board in their opinion that the request of the Zemindar to have the villages included in his Estate is inadmissible—the Govt. no longer having any power over them.

2. The Peshcush of the Gollapoliem village as given in the margin of para 1 of the Collector's letter appears to be incorrect; it ought to be 240 Rs.

instead of 420 Rs.—
