Madras, Collector's Office
Saidapet 29 November 1862

To
W. Huddleston Esq.
Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Sir,

In reply to Board's Proceedings of yesterday, I beg to state that the property submitted to and the compensation for which was settled by arbitration is distinct from the land which reverted to Government for arrears.

The owners of the former are well known, they did not attend, and therefore the arbitration was conducted by a single arbitrator under Section ~~II~~ Act ~~VI~~ of 1857, and I believe that he most carefully performed his work and awarded a just compensation.

3. The owners then declined to give possession, and I called upon the Magistrate under Section ~~IX~~ to enforce surrender. He declined to act, giving it as his opinion that the Magistrate referred to in the Act was a Mofussil and not Presidency Magistrate.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Dated 29th November 1862

Despatched

Received

No. 7513.

Requesting explanation somewhat more full respecting certain land in connection with Laidon's Gardens.

4. The matter was then submitted to the Advocate General, who declined to bring the matter to issue and thought it preferable to seek fresh legislation, and consequently Act 11 of 1851 was passed, and in due course the Commissioners of Police on my application put me in possession of the property. My proceedings were closely watched by Pranson Attorney, but nothing would crop out by which I could be entangled in a Civil Action.

5. The premises for which the value has been paid may be, after advertisements sold by public auction, as the best means in my opinion of arriving at their worth.

In order

This seems to be the best way of disposing the land but as it is situated close to a great thoroughfare, the Poonamallee Road, the village in communication with the Municipal Comm. out on the road, in connection & blocks with means of access -
I would sell it all & pay the amount due to the owners of the 5 Cairns & pay the balance & claim of the 7th

regarding operations in Egmore.

18th 1897
The Governor informed us of opinion that the simplest course will be to treat the whole of the land referred to in these proceedings as do--mionent property, and to sell it as such by public auction; the amount due to the owners of the land was £521-10-0 being paid to them if they ever appear to claim it. This course is accordingly by sanctioned for adoption.
