Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 18th July 1863.

No. 355. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st July 1863, No. 3,975:—

Read the following letter from the Honorable R. S. ELLIS, C. B., Collector of Madras, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Saidapet, 17th June 1863.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to request that the Board will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to exempt from Income Tax the interest due from 1st June 1862 on the Government Promissory Notes described in the accompanying Statement to the value of Rupees 18,500.

2. The application for this exemption is made by the Honorable V. Sadagopa Charloo, who, in May 1862, has opened a charitable Sanscrit College in connection with Stri-Devaraja Swamiar's Pagoda at Conjeveram, and the above sum contributed partly by Sadagopa Charloo and partly by the Zemindar of Ramanad, forms a fund for the maintenance of this College.

3. The College consists of two departments, a Collegiate and a School Department. In the former, the higher branches of Sanscrit are studied, in the latter the rudiments of that language are taught together with Tamil after the model of Government Schools. Upwards of 100 boys are reported to be studying at present, and they are so poor that they are unable to pay any fee.

4. Considering the purely charitable nature of the object for which the interest on the Promissory Notes in question is devoted, I am of opinion that it may be exempted from the operation of the Income Tax under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—List of Promissory Notes.

Ordered to be submitted for the sanction of Government.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Secretary.

ORDER THEREON, 18th July 1863, No. 1,328.

No. 356. Under Section 133, of Act XXXII of 1860, the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt from the duties chargeable under that Act the Government Securities named in the list submitted with these Proceedings so long as the interest thereon shall be devoted to the public charitable purpose described.
