Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th August 1863.

No. 158. Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Bellary, 30th July 1863, No. 31:—

SIR,

1. Government, in their Proceedings of 7th May 1863, No. 785, sanctioned the entertainment of a Sub-Magistrate of Bellary Town. Knowing of no passed Candidate, and indeed, this year being the first of special tests for Magisterial Offices, I appointed my Magisterial Clerk, on the 1st June 1863, to the office, his confirmation to depend on his being reported to have passed the special test, for which he was examined in the month of March last. Up to this time no report of the Examiners has been issued. I beg Government, as a special case, to order the Civil Paymaster to pass the salary of Rupees 100 to the said Shamarau, pending the publication of the report of the Examiners.

2. The office must be filled, and ought to be paid, but the Civil Paymaster has only passed Shamarau's former pay of Rupees 50 for the month of June, and July will follow the same precedent. I kept the Magisterial Clerk's office vacant for a whole month, and finally appointed one T. Soobbarau to fill it, from the 1st July 1863. He will get no pay at all, unless the Sub-Magistrate's salary for June is passed, because two men cannot draw the pay of one office. I do not think that officers should suffer from the long delay in publishing the result of an examination.

No. 159. ORDER THEREON, 17th August 1863, No. 1,512.

1. The Government are informed by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners that Shamarau has failed to pass the late special test examination. Mr. Wedderburn will therefore appoint a passed Candidate for the Sub-Magistrateship of Bellary. The Government understand that the list of passed Candidates will be published immediately.

2. Mr. Wedderburn should have obtained the previous sanction of Government even for the conditional appointment of Shamarau as Sub-Magistrate. They, however, as a special case authorize the Acting Civil Paymaster to pass to Shamarau the full pay of his office as Sub-Magistrate from 1st June 1863 to the date of the appointment of his successor, which should be within a reasonable period after the publication of the list of passed Candidates.
