SIR,

1. I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 1,108, dated 23rd June, forwarding a list of the Officers of the Forest Department in Madras, and to draw attention to the following entries in the Statement which do not appear to be correct.

2. Dr. Cleghorn's salary as Conservator of Forests in Madras, is set down at Rupees 1,000 only, whereas he draws Rupees 200 in addition for Mysore.

3. The pay for the Officers at Anamallai and Salem, is put down at Rupees 300 and 200 respectively, but in the last Schedule of Establishment the pay was fixed, it is believed, at Rupees 700 and 500 consolidated.

4. In the cases of the two Officers at Mudumallay and Wynood, the salary set down in each case has reference only to the Staff pay. The Military pay and allowances which it is believed are borne by the Forest Department, should also have been entered in the Statement which should show the total allowances drawn by every Officer.

6. The financial documents promised in your letter under reply are looked for.
