Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th October 1863.

Dated 20th October 1863, No. 1,902.

No. 235.

1. The increasing importance of the Neilgherry Hills renders it of consequence that an Officer of the standing and experience of a Head Assistant Collector and Magistrate should be permanently stationed on them. The Head Assistant of the District cannot be spared for this purpose, but the adjoining District of Malabar has a special Assistantship attached to it, which has for a considerable period been vacant, and probably is no longer requisite.

2. The Governor in Council considers it desirable, at all events as a temporary arrangement, to transfer this appointment to Coimbatore.

3. The Special Assistant will hold his Office at Ootacamund, visiting Coonoor, Kotagherry and other places as often as circumstances require.
