JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 15th October 1863, No. 1,410.

Revenue Department.

The special test laid down in the Notification of Government, dated 18th November 1862, for appointments in the Revenue Department is applicable to individuals seeking employment in that Department only after 1st May 1864, while that in the Judicial Department has effect from 1st May 1863. As the functions of a Tahsildar are of a mixed nature, comprising both Revenue and Magisterial duties, I have the honor to inquire which of the two dates mentioned above is to be held applicable to parties appointed intermediately to Tahsildarships.

ORDER THEREON, 26th October 1863, No. 1,638.

The intention of the Notification referred to was that no person should be appointed to the office of Tahsildar and Taluq Magistrate after the 1st May 1863 unless he had passed the test prescribed for the Magistracy, and that no person should be appointed to that office after the 1st May 1864 unless he had passed both the Magisterial and Revenue test.
