Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th January 1863.

No. 393. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 23rd December 1862, No. 1,862:—

SIR,

1. In reply to the Order of Government dated 20th instant, No. 2,648, Revenue Department, I have the honor to state that, as the Covenanted Subordinates of Collectors are appointed directly by Government, it seems necessary according to general practice that all orders relating to them should be approved and sanctioned by Government, and this necessity is recognized in the Order of Government dated 13th February 1860, No. 225, Revenue Department, which declares that claims to deputation allowance on behalf of such Officers are admissible only when they have been regularly appointed by Government to officiate.

2. But if Government see fit to delegate to the Board of Revenue the power to sanction the arrangements under which these Officers are placed in charge of superior offices, and empower the Civil Paymaster to admit deputation allowance according to the rules upon such sanction, there can be no objection to the measure on the part of this Office.

No. 394. ORDER THEREON, 29th January 1863, No. 198.

Resolved accordingly that the power of recognizing temporary appointments made by Collectors of their Assistants to the charge of superior offices be delegated to the Board of Revenue. The orders which the Board may pass will be sufficient authority for the Civil Paymaster to regulate the deputation allowances to which the Assistants may be entitled under such circumstances. The Order of Government dated 13th February 1860, No. 225, is cancelled.

(Signed.) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
