Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 20th December 1862, No. 324.

SIR,

1. The Officiating Civil Paymaster having returned unaudited two Bills for the items marginally noted, and refused to pass the same without the sanction of Government, I have the honor to lay the matter before the notice of the Board with a view to the requisite sanction being obtained to enable the Officiating Civil Paymaster to pass the charges in question.

2. They are charges in connection with the suits brought against the Collector as Defendant, by certain Abkarry defaulters, and for which judgment in one case* having been passed against the Defendant, I applied to the Board, in my letter, No. 48, dated 12th March 1862, to obtain sanction for the disbursement of the sum awarded against me in the said suit.

* Original Suit No. 2 of 1861, before the Civil Court of Nellore.

3. The items given above however, not having been included by inadvertence in the marginal particulars given in paragraph 10 of that letter, and for which sanction was duly given in Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 23rd May 1862, No. 1,146 communicated with the Board's Proceedings of the 26th idem, No. 3,400, the Civil Paymaster has declined to admit the present items for which sanction is now accordingly applied.

4. In the above are also included two items amounting to Rupees 3-8-0, being value of Stamp papers spoilt, &c., in Original Suit No. 1 of 1861, for which also sanction is required.

5. And in conclusion, in applying for sanction for the above amount of Rupees 50, it is only necessary for me to state that as intimated in the letter† from this Office dated 29th May 1862, No. 134, provision for these charges was duly made in the Budgets of 1861-62 and 1862-63 under the head of 10 Miscellaneous, minor head "Law Charges."

†Proceedings Board of Revenue dated 11th and 25th June 1862, Nos. 3,739, 4,100 respectively.

1. Ordered to be submitted to Government with the Board's recommendation that sanction be granted for the disbursement of 50 Rupees, being sundry items of Law charges incurred by the Collector of Nellore, and inadvertently omitted by him in his original applications for sanction; the said charges being met from the provision made for the purpose in the Budgets of 1861-62 and 1862-63, as intimated in Board's Proceedings 11th June 1862, No. 3,739.

2. Rupees 46-8-0 of the above amount form part of the costs of Suit No. 2 of 1861, in which the Collector was cast (vide Proceedings of Government, 23rd May 1862, No. 1,146), and the remaining sum, Rupees 3-8-0, is the value of stamps destroyed in Original Suit No. 1 of 1861.
