Read the following letter from H. MORRIS, Esq., Acting Collector of the Godavery District, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cocanada, 17th October 1863, No. 343.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Board that the Civil Paymaster objects to pass the charge of Rupees 30, being pay for September 1863, to English Accountant, Agasti Razu Kristnaya, who was promoted from a situation of Rupees 25 on the 1st August 1863, stating that "the special sanction of Government should be obtained to exempt him from the Uncove-"nanted Service Examination."

2. It appears from the attested extract (copy is herein enclosed) produced by him that he was employed as Writer in the Pay Office at Masulipatam from the 4th February 1847 till the 31st December 1860, the date on which that office was abolished. He was employed in this Office as English Clerk on the 27th March 1861.

3. In accordance with the Order of Government dated 23th July 1860, No. 1,101, conveyed with the Board's Circular, No. 3,636, dated 7th August 1860, I think he ought to be exempted from passing the examination, and I request the Board will be pleased to submit the case to Government for their sanction, as desired by the Civil Paymaster.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

ABSTRACT.—Copy of an extract showing the services of Agasti Razu Kristnaya, English Accountant.

The Board observe that the Order quoted in the 3rd paragraph of the foregoing letter if taken strictly, is applicable only to the cases of persons thrown out of employ in the recent revision of Revenue Establishments. They resolve, however, to submit the case for the orders of Government with their recommendation that the Accountant be exempted from the requirements of the Notification of Government, dated the 26th April 1861, under which he would be required to pass the Uncovenanted Service Examination, his service not having been continuous since January 1st, 1859.

No. 272. ORDER THEREON, 21st November 1863, No. 2,096.

The Government accede to the Board's recommendation. The Accountant cannot, however, be appointed to any situation for which a special test is prescribed without first passing it.
