In returning to you the accompanying letter from the Barrack Master No. 950, dated 5th November 1863, I have the honor to inform you that the building therein referred to, which is old and dilapidated, can be of no service to the Public Works Department.

No. 44. ORDER THEREON, 2nd December 1863, No. 3,544.

1. So far back as 1858, the then Officiating Chief Engineer reported that the building at Tondiarpettah, formerly used as an Arrack Distillery, was in a dangerous state and that a portion of the structure had actually fallen in, but notwithstanding its unsafe condition, the building has been allowed to stand up to the present time.

The Governor in Council directs that the Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, will arrange for pulling down the premises, and for the sale of the materials by public auction, reporting in due course the amount realized.
