1. With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd September 1863 No. 6,058, I have the honor to state that the deceased Inámdar, Ghadeyaram Subbammah having died in 1859, leaving no legal heirs to succeed to her property, an Order was issued to the Tahsildar by Mr. Murray, the late Collector, on the 12th May 1859, directing that the leviable assessment of her Inám lands in seven villages,* and one-fifth of her share in a Shrotriem called Pidatala Virayapalli in Sidhavatam Talook should be kept in deposit pending the disposal by the Inám Commissioner of the claims of her cousins to succeed to her property. The sums thus brought to account under the head "Extra Revenue" during Fuslies 1268, 1269 and 1270 amount to Rupees 116-8-11.
