Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 11th February 1863.

No. 183. Read the following letter from Mr. C. BURTON, late Examiner of the Revenue Board Office, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 5th February 1863 :—

SIR,

I beg most respectfully to bring to your notice, for submission to Government, that prior to the departure of Mr. Maskell, (the late Uncovenanted Assistant to the Board of Revenue) to Europe, I purchased of him for a large sum of money the whole of the Circular Orders of the Board of Revenue compiled by him comprising in the aggregate to 801 volumes or copies, whereof I beg to state that I have only up to the present period been able to dispose of a moiety and the remainder are still on my hands for sale. Understanding that Government have in view directly to cause a re-print of the said work, which I need hardly state will in that case not only render those with me obsolete but will also entail on me a considerable loss and being in rather dependent circumstances, it will tend to ruin me; under these explanations I take the liberty to appeal to your goodness and to solicit that you will be pleased to lay my hard case for the gracious and favorable consideration of Government for giving me a little time for the disposal of the remaining copies of the work with me.

I beg to apologise for the trouble I am occasioning.

No. 184. ORDER THEREON, 11th February 1863, No. 314.

1. Mr. Burton is informed that the Government have no intention of re-publishing in their present form the Circular Orders of the Board of Revenue, but decline to prevent private individuals from doing so, if they think it fit.

2. Mr. Burton will be furnished with a copy of G. O. dated 20th instant on this subject.

(Signed.) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
