SIR,

1. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Order of Government No. 144, dated 23rd ultimo, Revenue Department, referring for my report a letter from the Officiating Director of Revenue Settlement, in which he requests that Government will be pleased to allow a slight deviation from the Rule regarding the adjustment of advances within three months, and to extend to one year, the period of adjustment of advances made to his Department.

2. In reply, I beg to subjoin the instructions of the Auditor General of India, on the subject. "The adjustment of such* disbursements ordinarily within "a month after they are incurred, should, however, be insisted on, "and when delay occurs beyond that time, vouchers may, if necessary, be called for, and in no case, should any item be allowed to remain unadjusted for more "than three months, without special enquiry and report."

* Unadjusted Disbursements.

No. 200. ORDER THEREON, 12th February 1863, No. 322.

The Government are of opinion that a permanent advance will meet the difficulties stated by Mr. Master for the speedy adjustment of advances. He will be requested to report to what extent such an advance will be necessary so that on the bills for each month being passed the money may be drawn and credited to the "Permanent advance."

(Signed.) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
