JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT:

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 23rd January 1863, No. 96.

With reference to Government Order, dated 23rd ultimo, No. 2,112, Judicial Department, I have the honor to state that the Controller of Military Finance has informed me that the only funds which are available for transfer to the Civil Budget are those provided on account of the Military pay, &c., of Non-Commissioned Officers and men of the Army employed in the Department of Public Works, and that no provision has been made in the Military Budget of 1862-63 on account of such persons employed in other branches of the Civil Department. I am thus precluded from admitting such allowances in the Civil Department, but would suggest in view to prevent inconvenience that the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General be instructed to arrange for the payment of them as advances, and to take measures for obtaining a Supplemental grant on the same account.

ORDER THEREON, 6th February 1863, No. 109.

Communicated to the Collector of Coimbatore, who is authorized to advance the further sum of (Rupees 381-11-7) three hundred and eighty-two Rupees, applied for by Mr. Hodgson in his letter recorded in Proceedings, 23rd December last, No. 2,112.

2. The Deputy Auditor and Accountant General is requested to arrange for the payment, prior to audit, of the Military pay, &c., of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, who would have received their Army allowances in the Military Department, but for the passing of

3. Provision for these allowances should be made in the monthly Return of "further grants not provided for in the Budget" if they cannot be met by the appropriation of savings under the sanction either of this Government or of the Government of India.
