Order of this Department, No. 891g, dated 12th November 1862.

Office Memorandum from Home Department, No. 242, dated 14th January 1863.

RESOLUTION.—In the abovementioned papers is discussed the question whether persons employed on the establishments of Sudder Amceens, Moonsiffs and Deputy Collectors in Madras, are entitled to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

It is a rule not to grant pensions to persons on the establishments of public Officers who are allowed a certain sum for their establishments, with the detailed distribution of which Government does not interfere, and as the establishments of the Subordinate Judicial and Revenue Officers are paid out of the allowance given to the Officers in question, the persons employed on such establishments have never been eligible to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

A different system, however, prevails in Madras. There the Sudder Amceens and Moonsiffs and Deputy Collectors, do not draw any allowance for their establishments, but the establishments are sanctioned in detail by the Local Government. For this reason, persons employed on the establishments of the Sudder Amceens, Moonsiffs and Deputy Collectors in Madras, have been allowed by the Local Government to enjoy the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

It is fair that where salaries of persons have been fixed by Government, such persons, if of the same class as those declared eligible to pensions, should have a like claim when they become incapacitated for further service.

His Excellency the Governor General in Council resolves, therefore, to leave the practice followed in Madras undisturbed, and he desires that the other Local Governments, as well as the minor Administrations be requested to consider the question in connection with the practice in their own jurisdictions, and to inform this Government of their opinion.

Ordered, that copies of the above Resolution be forwarded to—
