Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 25th March 1863.

No. 266. Read the following letter from the Honorable C. PELLY, Member of the Board of Revenue, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 21st March 1863, No. 1,487 :—

SIR,

1. The Order of Government dated 16th March 1863, No. 525, communicates the Judicial Proceedings of Government, dated 23rd December 1862, which sanctions an allowance of Rupees 70 a month to the Joint Magistrate of Ootacamund, Major Wapshare, but no Establishment appears to have been provided for him for the performance of his duties as Joint Magistrate.

2. This Officer was hitherto in charge of the Assistant Collector's Office, for which an establishment of Rupees 107 per month was sanctioned by Government in their Order, dated 21st February 1860. Major Wapshare conducted the duties of the Assistant Collector's Office with the establishment just alluded to. It was during this time that the Collector of Coimbatore recommended* an increase to the pay of a Gunashta belonging to this establishment, but I refused the application, as I did not see sufficient grounds for recommending it for sanction. As Major Wapshare thus appeared to be only in temporary charge of the Assistant Collector's Office, in the absence of a duly appointed Assistant, I had no occasion to consider the position of the Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund, as observed in paragraph 4 of the Judicial Order under acknowledgment. As it however now appears that there is to be a Joint Magistrate, besides the Assistant Collector and Magistrate, it would seem proper to allow him a separate establishment distinct from that attached to the Assistant Collector. Should the Government concur in this view I would recommend that sanction be granted for an establishment the same as that provided for Wellington, viz., 74 Rupees a month, as noted in the margin, which, with the allowance of the Joint Magistrate, 70 Rupees, would be Rupees 144 per month.

No. 267. ORDER THEREON, 25th March 1863, No. 579.

Mr. Pelly is requested to state whether the Assistant Collector cannot spare one of his writers, seeing that his establishment was framed for Revenue and Magisterial work, while the latter falls entirely on the Joint Magistrate.
