Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 1st April 1863.

No. 5. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st March 1863, No. 1,708 :—

Read again letter from the Collector of Ganjam, dated 9th January 1863, No. 6, recorded in Board's Proceedings 28th idem, No. 565.

Read also the following letter from the same Officer, dated 17th February 1863, No. 10.

1. With reference to Board's Proceedings dated the 28th ultimo, I have the honor to explain that the Writer whom I retained in charge of the Pension Accounts under the supervision at one time of the Head Assistant, and subsequently under that of the Deputy Collector, was already in the public service on the salary of Rupees 35 as a Pension Writer. I was not aware his services were to be dispensed with. I can give no other answer to the Board's first query.

2. The second is why these duties were not undertaken by an Officer of my own Establishment, and to this my reply is that my Head Assistant and subsequently the Deputy Collector did undertake the superintendence of these Pensions at the cost of much valuable time. I could not have detached an experienced Writer from any Department to render further aid without leaving other public business undone.

Ordered that the above correspondence be submitted for the information of Government, in reply to paragraph 2 of their Proceedings in the Military Department, dated 11th December 1862, No. 4,254, communicated to the Board with Revenue Proceedings, 22nd idem, No. 2,652.
