Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th April 1863.

No. 51. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 12th February 1863, No. 846:—

SIR,

In Cons. 22nd December 1862, No. 8,112.

Madras	Rs. 4,50,208
South Arcot.....	4,16,295
Coimbatore.....	2,77,339

1. With reference to the Proceedings of Government dated 20th December 1862, No. 2,612, I am directed by the Board of Revenue to report that the outstanding balances on account of Land Revenue at the beginning of Fasli 1272 in the Districts of Madras, South Arcot and Coimbatore, were as shown in the margin. The balance in Madras includes Rupees 3,70,622, the uncollected balance on account of the demand of Fasli 1271, which is attributed by the Collector to the late adverse season, and the increasing indigence of the people.

2. The uncollected balances on account of the demand of Fasli 1271 in South Arcot and Coimbatore were Rupees 4,01,068 and 2,71,921 respectively. In paragraph 69 of his Settlement Report for Fasli 1271, Mr. Reade states that a large portion of the demand of the year was left uncollected at its close in consequence of the late period at which the Jumna bundy was concluded. He however observes at the same time, that there is no good reason for the practice in his District in this respect, and that he has adopted measures for the earlier completion of the settlement in future years. The Collector of Coimbatore ascribes the large balance at the close of Fasli 1271 to the unfavorable character of the season, and the consequent necessity for granting remissions for waste lands and withered crops, which probably delayed the completion of the settlement.

3. Subsequent however to the close of the Fasli, considerable progress has been made in realizing the balances mentioned. They had been reduced by 31st December 1862 to the sums entered in the margin.

Madras.....	Rs. 85,664
South Arcot.....	22,551
Coimbatore	4,632

4. The position of matters in Madras is however still unsatisfactory, and the reason assigned above appears insufficient to justify it.

No. 52.

ORDER THEREON, 9th April 1863, No. 623.

Ordered to be recorded.

Deputy Secretary to Government.
