No. 70. Read the following letter from Colonel J. HILL, Commissary General, to Colonel H. MARSHALL, Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 26th March 1863, No. 101:—

SIR,

In reference to paragraph 3 of Order of Government No. 418, dated 18th March 1863, I have the honor to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the Military Bazaars and Police being no longer under the control of the Commissariat Officer at Wellington, he is totally unable to carry on efficiently the Abkarry duties, and I therefore do not deem it advisable that the suggestion of Mr. Grant "that the Abkarry within the Cantonment should be again transferred to the Commissariat Officer" should be acted upon.

Referred with the previous paper to the Revenue Department.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
31st March 1863.

(Signed) H. MARSHALL, Colonel,
Secretary to Government.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Pullachy, 25th February 1863, No. 13.

In reply to Proceedings of Government, Judicial Department, dated 9th instant, No. 207, I have the honor to inform you that Wellington having been re-established as a Military Bazar Station, the jurisdiction of the Cantonment Joint Magistrate may be restricted to the Military limits.

2. Arrangements for the trial of parties in Coonoor and other places committing offences beyond the jurisdiction of a 2nd Class Sub-Magistrate, can be made in connection with the Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund.

3. I would suggest that the Abkarry within the Cantonment should be again transferred to the Commissariat Officer as was formerly the case.

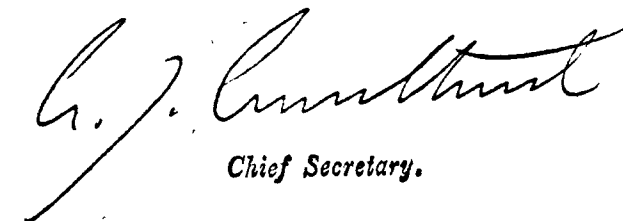

ORDER THEREON, 18th March 1863, No. 418.

Wellington having been re-established as a Military Bazar Station, the jurisdiction of the Cantonment Joint Magistrate will in future be restricted to the Military limits, as the Magistrate of the District concurs in the arrangement.

2. Mr. Pelly is requested, in reference to this change, to revise the establishment attached to the Joint Magistrate, showing what proportion shall be borne respectively by the Military and Civil Budgets. He will reply to this reference without delay, as the alteration will have to be reported to the Government of India in common with the general revision of the Revenue and Magisterial establishments recently made.

3. The suggestion in paragraph 3 of Mr. Grant's letter will be considered in the Military Department.
