as many dismissed Caranam connected with that service, may be restored to him at Handwritten text in Telugu script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely written in multiple columns, with some lines underlined. The script is in an older form of Telugu, possibly from the 16th or 17th century. The document appears to be a record of land grants or a legal document, given the context of the surrounding text in the image.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with numerous small, dark brown spots scattered across its surface, characteristic of foxing or dirt. Along the right edge, there are faint, illegible markings that appear to be remnants of a binding or text from an adjacent page. The overall tone is warm and slightly yellowed, consistent with old paper.

So your report is that I have not signed the new constitution, and that I have not yet received the new constitution.

Collector in order to deprive him of the Curran Merases; which they gave to their relatives & dependant.

That thinking that this great injustice would be put in proper way the Petitioner came down here from a distance of 100 Miles & appealed to the Board of Review. It was his misfortune that the Board concurred with the Opinion of the Collector and endorsement his Petition accordingly without any enquiry into the matter.

That if the Government be so good as to send for all the Records of the said cases and look over them well the Petitioner trusts that it would clearly come to be known that the signature was Samprath Ramiah's & as such he alone should be punished for including the names of land in question in the manner. The ruin of the Petitioner was effected thro the influence of the Sub Servadars and wabinis who wanted to serve their dependants & relatives.

That the memorandum recorded by the Collector at the time of Jambundi regarding the conduct of Sasthah Chint and Ram Row will clearly exhibit to government the evil practices of these subordinates.

That the Petitioner is a poor man & has to maintain 20 souls all of whom are dependant on government charity -

That should your Excellency be so good and kind as to bring the case of the poor Petitioner into your deep consideration and restore him to his post and your Excellency will be doing an act of great justice & mercy.

That for this act of benevolence & charity the Petitioner shall ever pray for your Excellency's long life and prosperity.

list also, and deprived him, not only of the ~~Lewis~~ ~~Memorialist~~ appertaining to the Miras, but also of ~~some~~ lands, unconnected with the same. This was held by the present ~~Lewis~~ ~~Memorialist~~.

and also denied your Memorialist appeal, on Collector's decision, in his endorsement; your Memorialist, next came to Madras, a distance of 400 miles from his place, in hopes of obtaining redress; and submitted his case to the Members of the Board of Revenue, in two Petitions, dated the 4th and 20th July 1864. Without the least regard to justice, the Board declined to interfere in the matter, in their endorsement, No 2215.

No 14. As the last local resource, your Memorialist then appeared to his Excellency the Governor in Council, on the 4th and 9th March 1863, and his hope of obtaining justice in India ended, and he also the ~~Memorialist~~ local authorities declined to interfere in his behalf.

as may be seen from their endorsem^{ts}, dated the 21st and 28th March 1863, Nos 677 and 717.

5. ^{Memorialist} The need not expiate upon the injustice done to His Majesty's subjects by his serv^{ts} here, as the course adopted towards him is a sufficient commentary on their conduct.

This is not a solitary instance of such behaviour, and is far from being the only

6. Through the carelessness and idleness of the Government Head Officials, on a Salary of Thousands of Rupees, and their consequent neglect of duty, many like your Memorialist, both great and small, are subjected to injustice without redress.

We were assured in the Proclamation of 1st November 1858, when His Majesty assumed the reins of Government, that the wrongs of the subjects shall be redressed and their rights protected. But the conduct of these officials has shaken the Confidence of the people; and it is the general impression, at present, that justice was better administered during the late Company's reign than now.
