Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th May 1863.

No. 88. Read the following letter from G. N. TAYLOR, Esq., Inám Commissioner, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 24th March 1863, No. 16:—

SIR,

1. Rangá Reddi, father of Narasimha Reddi, one of the present holders of the Reddi or Maniagar's Inám, of the extent and value shown in the margin,* situated in the village of Vémulapádu in the Talook of Tádipatri in the Bellary District, was in the monthly receipt of a pension of Rupees 21-4-10 in commutation of the fees and Ináms which originally belonged to his family as "Désáyi."

Wet.....	11-27	118 3 0
Total.....	174-99	219 3 0

2. After Rangá Reddi's death, which took place in March, Fasli 1264, the Désáyi pension was discontinued under the Order of Government, dated 1st June 1858, on the ground that the family held a Reddi Inám, and also a portion† of the Karanam Mirási Inám in the village of Timmápuram in the same Talook, valued both together at Rupees 382 at that time, and at Rupees 238 according to the reduced rates.

	Extent Acres.	Assessment. RS. A. P.
† Dry	8-97	18 14 0

3. Narasimha Reddi, now the head of the family, represents that as the Désáyi pension was discontinued on the ground of their enjoyment of these Ináms, and as the family are without other means of livelihood, the Reddi Inám ought fairly to be enfranchised at $\frac{1}{4}$ th Quit-rent and not at $\frac{1}{5}$ ths of its value like other service Ináms.

4. The portion of the Karanam Inám held by this family in the village of Timmápuram has been necessarily included in the Joint Title Deed No. 470 of the Tádipatri Talook issued in the names of all the sharers of that Inám, and is enfranchised accordingly and charged with a Quit-rent of 12 Rupees being $\frac{1}{4}$ ths of its value. The Quit-rent on the Reddi Inám in question, if charged at $\frac{1}{4}$ ths would amount to Rupees 136; so that the family would, in that case, have to pay on the whole Rupees 148 annually out of an aggregate income of Rupees 238-1-0;‡ thus reducing their means of subsistence to 7½ Rupees a month, in lieu of the monthly pension of Rupees 21-4-10, which they formerly enjoyed in addition to the full value of the official Ináms under notice.

5. Under the peculiar circumstances detailed above, the family seem to be fairly deserving of some consideration, and I propose, with the approval of Government, to treat the Reddi Inám exceptionally and to confirm and enfranchise it to Narasimha Reddi on a Quit-rent equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ th of its value.

6. The total Quit-rent payable to Government on the two Ináms will then be 66½ Rupees, leaving an annual income to the Inámdár of 172 Rupees or about 14 Rupees a month.

No. 89. ORDER THEREON, 8th May 1863, No. 797.

1. The Inám, in commutation of which the allowance referred to in the Inám Commissioner's letter above recorded was originally granted, belonged to that class of rent free lands known as Désáyi Ináms. Colonel Munro when speaking of the holders of these Ináms observed in his report of the 25th August 1805, "that they differed in no respect from the common "Potails and Curnums of the villages but in holding a more extensive jurisdiction, which "was however in one respect inferior to theirs by being held during pleasure, while theirs was "hereditary."

2. On the assumption of the country by the British Government the said offices were abolished, and the Ináms attached to them resumed, though in a few instances portions of the Ináms were continued, and in a few others pensions were granted to the families of the incumbents to alleviate present and individual distress.

Inám Commissioner

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th May 1863.

3. On the death of Ranga Reddy, the father of Narasimma Reddy referred to in the Inám Commissioner's letter, Government considered the allowance which the deceased had enjoyed, to be one of the nature above described, and declined to continue any portion of the pension to his heirs, observing that the family was possessed of Reddi and Karnikam Ináms of the value of 323½ Rupees, and that the late Court of Directors had not contemplated the continuance of these allowances, especially when the family was provided for in other ways.

4. With reference to the orders of Government directing the enfranchisement of the Village Service Ináms of the Ceded Districts, the Inám Commissioner now reports that the commutation of the Reddi Inám of the said Narasimma Reddy into a Freehold at the sanctioned rate of ¾th assessment will reduce the income of the family from Rupees* 41 to Rupees 7½ a month, which will be barely sufficient for their subsistence, and as the Désayi pension was stopped in consideration of the family possessing the above Reddi Inám he recommends that sanction be granted for its enfranchisement at ¼th of its value.

• Désayi Pension per month ...	24	4	10

5. The Désayi allowance above referred to was of a temporary nature, which it was not the intention of Government to continue beyond one or two lives, whereas the relinquishment of the Quit-rent on the above Inám to the extent suggested by the Inám Commissioner would involve a permanent sacrifice of public revenue. It is also to be observed that the charge of Quit-rent so far as Narasimma Reddy is concerned, will be merely nominal, for on the substitution of money payments for endowments in land now enjoyed by the village servants of the Ceded Districts, the amount of the new demand will in a great measure be made good to him, as he seems to be the office holder, in the shape of a pecuniary allowance which will be paid to him simultaneously with the levying of the Quit-rent and continued during his good conduct. There is therefore no reason for not applying the sanctioned rate of enfranchisement to the Reddy Inám possessed by Narasimma Reddy.

Secretary to Government.

reducing their means of subsistence to 7½ Rs. a month, in lieu of the monthly pension of Rs 24-1-10, which they formerly enjoyed in addition to the full value of the official Ináms under notice.

5. Under the peculiar circumstances detailed above, the family seem to be fairly deserving of some consideration and I propose, with the approval of Government, to treat the Reddi Inám exceptionally and to confirm and enfranchise it to Narasimma Reddy on a Quit Rent equal to ¼th of its value.

The total Quit Rent payable to Government on the two Ináms will then be 66 Rs, leaving an annual income to the Indandar of 172 Rs or about 14 Rs a month.
