On the death of Nazamul Dowlah (fifth son of Hussain Alli Khan, late Nabob of Masulipatam) which took place in 1842, the pension of Rupees 419-6-0, enjoyed by him, was ordered to be renewed in the name of his eldest son Jalalul Dowlah (the deceased) for the support of that branch of his late father's family of which he was the head. 2. On reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, it appears that directly the orders of the Government of India dated 23rd December 1842, in the case of Jalalul Dowlah were received, the other members of his family protested against his appointment as head of the family; and requested the separation of their respective shares. To Board, 30th May 1844, No. 44. Board's Proceedings, 20th June 1844. To Board, 8th October 1844. Board's Proceedings, 9th January 1845. To Board, 14th June 1845, No. 61. From Board, 1st September 1845.

3. On the sub-division of the pension in question, among the several members of the family owing to dissensions, a sum of Rupees 60 was allotted to the deceased Jalalul Dowlah, as his share of the pension, as will appear from the list submitted to the Board under date 25th September 1845, which received the sanction of Government in the Minutes of Consultation, dated 27th October 1845.

4. Jalalul Dowlah enjoyed the reduced pension till his death. He left a numerous family, as detailed in column 10. It is destitute of any means of livelihood. The deceased nominated his eldest son as the head of his family; to which the other members agreed.

5. I therefore beg to recommend that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government for the renewal of the deceased's reduced pension, Rupees 60 per mensem, in the name of his eldest son Zulfukker-ood-dowlah for the support of his family, which is entirely dependant upon the pension.

6. The renewal of the pension should commence from the date of Jalalul Dowlah's demise.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th May 1863.

1. Ordered to be submitted to Government with the Board's recommendation that the reduced pension of 60 Rupees a month enjoyed by the late Jalalul Dowlah of the family of the late Nabob of Masulipatam, be continued in the name of his eldest son, Zulfukk er-ood-dowlah, from the 11th January 1863, the date on which the above Jalalul Dowlah died.

2. The pension originally drawn by the deceased for the benefit of his branch of the family was Rupees 419-6-0 under the orders of the Government of India, dated 23rd December 1842, No. 189;* but in consequence of his irregularities in distributing the pension and the dissensions in the family, the circumstances of which will be found recorded in the correspondence noted in the margin, Jalalul Dowlah's own portion of the allowance was ordered to be fixed at 60 Rupees a month, the remainder being distributed by the Collector himself to the other members of the family.

Ordered that the following letter be despatched.

No. 127. From J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, to the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 12th May 1863, No. 817:—

SIR,

1. I am directed to submit for the favorable consideration and orders of the Government of India the accompanying Proceedings of the Board of Revenue with a Tabular Statement from the Acting Collector of the Kistna District relative to a pension of Rupees 60 per mensem enjoyed by the late Jalalul Dowlah, a member of the family of Hussein Ally Khan, usually called the Nabob of Masulipatam, which is proposed to be continued in the name of his eldest son.

Dated 8th April 1863, No. 2,002.

2. On the recommendation of this Government the Government of India in letter dated 23rd December 1842, No. 189, sanctioned a pension of Rupees 419-6-0 per mensem for the support of this branch of the family; but in consequence of irregularities on the part of Jalalul Dowlah in distributing the pension, and dissensions in the family, the amount was in 1845 divided under the authority of this Government among the several members of the family. Jalalul Dowlah's own share was then fixed at Rupees 60 a month, and the remainder was distributed by the Collector himself to the other individuals.

3. Jalalul Dowlah was in receipt of the reduced pension of Rupees 60 till his death, which took place on the 11th January 1863. He has left a large family consisting of an aged widow, five sons and three daughters, who the Collector states are destitute of any means of livelihood besides this pension. The Collector further reports that the deceased's nomination of his eldest son as the head of his family has been agreed to by the other members.

4. Under these circumstances the Government desire me to request sanction for the pension in question, viz., Rupees 60 per mensem, being continued in the name of Zulfukker-ood-Dowlah the eldest son of the late Jalalul Dowlah from the 11th January 1863, the date on which the latter died.
