Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 13th May 1863.

No. 166. Read the following letter from the Honorable C. PELLY, President to the Income Tax Commission, Madras, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 30th April 1863, No. 3 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the temporary employment of four extra Conocopolays in the Collecting Department of the Income Tax Office, for the purpose of realizing the outstanding balance of the demand for the Income Tax year 1861-62, amounting to Rupees 25,000.

2. The Establishment was reduced on the 1st of March to the lowest possible limit for carrying on current collections, and the five Conocopolays at present employed are so fully occupied in collecting the demand for the present year, the third quarter of which falls due on the 1st of May, that little or no progress has been made in realizing this balance during the last two months, and there appears to be little prospect of its realization without the aid of the additional Establishment now applied for.

3. The extra charge of Rupees 240* may perhaps be met from savings in the amount entered in the Budget Estimate for 1863-64, under the heads of "Printing charges," "Contingencies," or "Honorary Fees."

No. 167. ORDER THEREON, 13th May 1863, No. 837.

The Government observe that only three months ago they recommended to the Supreme Government an Establishment, which the Commissioners led them to believe would be sufficient. They cannot therefore consent to the employment of extra servants without being more fully informed why the collections are so backward, and whether the expense cannot be met by reductions in some other direction of the present Establishment charges.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
