Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st May 1863.

No. 259. Read the following letter from A. PURVIS, Esq., Collector of the Godavery District, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Cocanada, 2nd May 1863, No. 4:—

SIR,

I trust I am not exceeding my duty in, previous to resigning charge of this District, bringing to the notice of Government the great assistance I have invariably received from Kādambare Jugganadhum, Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury, since he assumed charge of his office in January 1860. His unwearied attention to his special duties, more onerous in this than in most Districts, and the very correct and careful manner in which he has always performed them, deserve my warmest acknowledgments. As a Sub-Magistrate of the First Class, he has acquitted himself in so creditable a manner that, had I continued in office, I should have had no hesitation in recommending that the full powers of a Magistrate should be extended to him. I venture to think that K. Jugganadhum, who, I may add, was held in high estimation by the Officers under whom he served previous to his appointment to the office which he now holds, has claims to promotion, being still of the lowest class, and to express a hope that when opportunity offers, His Excellency in Council may see fit to take them into consideration.

No. 260. ORDER THEREON, 21st May 1863, No. 883.

The Government are gratified to receive such satisfactory testimony to the character and services of Kādambare Jugganadhum Row.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
