Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd May 1863.

No. 271. Read the following letter from the Honorable C. PELLY, Member of the Board of Revenue, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 18th April 1863, No. 1,500:—

SIR,

1. With reference to the Order of Government, dated 25th March last, No. 579, requesting me to state whether the Assistant Collector of Coimbatore cannot spare one of his Writers for the Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund, I have the honor to submit a letter from the Collector, Mr. Grant, on the subject.

Dated 8th April 1863.

2. The Establishment now allowed to the Assistant Collector consists of the strength noted in the margin. Of this a Clerk on 20 Rupees a month is now exclusively attached to the Joint Magistrate; while another Clerk, Dufterbund, and Masaljee attend to the duties of both offices, and Mr. Hodgson and Major Wapshare have each a Peon from the two belonging to the Assistant Collector's Office.

1 Head Clerk.....	RS. 45
1 Clerk.....	20
1 Do.....	15
1 Dufterbund.....	7
2 Peons at 7 Rupees.....	14
1 Lamp-lighter and Sweeper.....	6
	107

3. Mr. Grant considers that no further Establishment need be entertained, but he repeats his former recommendation for an increase to the pay of the Magisterial Clerk, which I then declined to entertain. In consideration, however, of the responsible duties that devolve on this Clerk from his being exclusively employed under the Military Joint Magistrate, I think that 35 Rupees may be allowed. The Collector asks for 5 Rupees in addition to his present pay of 20 Rupees, but I think the Magisterial Clerk of the Joint Magistrate at Ooty should not have less than 35 Rupees, especially as he will not now be in the same Office as the Clerk on 45 Rupees retained by the Assistant Collector, and his duties are not much less responsible than those of that Clerk. I would, therefore, solicit that the sanction of Government may be granted for the additional charge of 15 Rupees. This increase will make the total cost of the Assistant Collector's Establishment Rupees 122 a month instead of Rupees 107 formerly sanctioned.

ORDER THEREON, 22nd May 1863, No. 889.

No. 272. Sanction is accordingly granted for Rupees (15) fifteen.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
