Read the following Tabular Report from the Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated Madanapalli, 3rd May 1864, on a lapsed Poligar pension in the District of Cuddapah :—

Number.	Taluk and village. Extent and value of the entire Inam.	When and by whom granted. Name of the original grantee. Sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity or service; if service, nature of duty prescribed by the grant.	Name of the last holder; date of his decease, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased, and that held by other members.	Family left by the deceased, and name and age of the parties, their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Mallela in Calacada (late Gurramconda) Taluk. Rupees 2,625 per annum, or Rupees 218-12-0 per mensem entered in No. 76 of Mr. Ross's Register Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro on the 12th July 1801 to Venkata Cadiripati Nayadu, the original grantee, and renewed in the name of the last incumbent Vencatappa Nayadu under sanction of Government dated 17th June 1842, No. 753, communicated in the Board's Proceedings dated 4th July 1842. No Sunnuds, &c., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices and privileges, &c.	Venkatappa Nayadu, the last incumbent, died on the 31st December 1863. He was son of the original grantee;	The whole amount of the allowance was held by the deceased subject to the payment of certain amounts to Narasimha Nayadu and Vasanta Nayadu as sanctioned by Government.	1 Venkata Cadirappa Nayadu, son of the deceased by his first wife, aged thirty years. 1 Condamma, first wife of do., aged twenty years. 1 Chinna Condammah, second wife of do., aged eighteen years. 1 Yerrammah, second widow of the deceased, aged forty years. 1 Vasanta Nayadu, son of do., aged twenty-five years. 1 Condammah, elder wife of do., aged twenty-eight years. 1 Yerrammah, second wife of do., aged sixteen years. 1 Venkatadry Nayadu, first younger brother of the deceased, aged forty years. 1 Melammah, wife of do., aged thirty years. 1 Cadireppa, son of do., aged seven years. 1 Melammah, widow of the second younger brother of the deceased, aged forty years. 1 Caderappa Nayadu, son of do., aged eighteen years. 1 Venkatadry Nayadu, do., aged twelve years. 1 Narasimha Nayadu, do., aged nine years. 1 Caderemmah, daughter, aged six years. — 15 — Besides the above, there are several other cousins, relations, and servants supported by the deceased pensioner amounting to ninety-seven persons. The family possess Puttah land, assessed at Rupees 511-9-2, and Dasavandam and other Inams, &c., assessed at Rupees 1,573-11-7, and are reported to earn their livelihood in a better manner.	On the death of the original grantee, a report was made by the then Acting Principal Collector to the Board of Revenue on the 9th April 1842, recommending that Venkatappa Nayadu his son (the last incumbent) should succeed to the allowance on the condition that he should pay 100 and 95 Pagodas, or Rupees 291-10-8 and Rupees 277-1-4 respectively to his nephews Narasimha Nayadu and Vasanta Nayadu. The Board of Revenue supported the recommendation of the Acting Principal Collector, and the Government sanctioned it accordingly under date the 17th June 1842, No. 753. Narasimha Nayadu and Vasanta Nayadu, the nephews of the deceased, died five and twelve years ago, the former leaving a widow, and the latter without any heirs. As the widow of the above-said Narasimha Nayadu, and all the other members of the family live together, and as the Sub-Collector reports that the whole of the family have agreed to the pension being continued to Venkata Cadereppa Nayadu, son of the deceased by his first wife, it is recommended that the allowance, viz., Rupees 2,625 per annum, be continued to Venkata Cadereppa Nayadu from 1st January 1864 with arrears due to the deceased for December 1863, Rupees 218-12-0.

1. As the Acting Collector has apparently hesitated to act on the orders conveyed in Board's Circular Order dated 3rd September 1861, in the present case, the case will be submitted for the orders of Government, with the Board's recommendation that the pension of Rupees 2,625 per annum, which appears to have been recognized by Government in their Order No. 753, dated 17th June 1842, as hereditary, be continued to Venkata Caderappa Nayadu, eldest son of the last holder of the allowance from 1st January 1864, the date of the latter's decease, together with the arrears, Rupees 218-12-0, for the month of December 1863, which were due to the deceased at the time of his death.

2. The share formerly payable to Vasanta Nayadu out of the present pension was 90 and not 95 Pagodas, as is stated by the Collector in the column of Remarks.
